200 RADICALS ARE BAGGED IN A RAID

THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AGENTS DRAW IN THEIR DRAG NETS

SOVIET CHIEF MAY BE GIVEN A SEA VOYAGE

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Department of justice agents announced today that they were examining literature seized in the raids last night to determine whether Ludwig Martens, self styled ambassador to the United States of the Russian soviet republic, was connected with the distribution of communist propaganda in this country. If such connection is established they said they had sufficient evidence to warrant his deportation.

LAST AMERICAN TO LEAVE FRANCE

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 3.—Departure of Brigadier General William Connor from Paris, January 9 with three hundred officers will mark the final withdrawal of American forces from France.

DECEMBER NOT A COLD MONTH

Monthly weather reports from the United States bureau prove that December, notwithstanding the abuse heaped on it for extreme cold, was not such a bad ginny after all, since the total for the month was actually above the normal with a mean of 32 degrees compared with 28 in 1918 and 1917. The normal for the month is 31. The precipitation for the month was 2.2 inches of snow. The maximum velocity of wind was on the 11th when thirty-four miles an hour was registered. The warmest day was 54 on the 29th and the lowest 4 on the 9th. The sunshine record was deficient as it only registered 67 per cent instead of the usual 82 per cent.

C. J. ENQUIST BUYS A RESORT

Charles J. Enquist, formerly one of the owners of the Tonopah Liquor company, has taken to the simple life in California, according to a letter received today which gives his permanent address as Paradise Hot Springs, a resort which he bought in partnership with C. E. Riley from Klamath Falls. The property forms a beautiful summer resort surrounded by eighty-six acres of the best land in Monterey county. The place is mentioned as a perfect garden spot and all Tonopah people are invited to make a call when they are visiting the coast, as it is situated on the main line between San Francisco and Los Angeles and also on the state highway.

CINNABAR MINE CHANGES HANDS

MINA, Jan. 3.—The long pending deal for the sale of the Drew-Bugg cinnabar property, twelve miles east of Mina, has at last been closed with the first payment of $10,000 to Drew and Bugg in Reno on Tuesday of last week. The total price is $75,000, the balance to be paid in six monthly installments. The purchaser, H. G. Torrance, of Oakland, Calif., with his engineer, made a final inspection of the property. It is reported that samples taken from the dump assayed $67 in gold and silver—no attempt ever having been made to extract from the ore any values except in quicksilver.

The new owner proposes to erect a fifty-ton mill at the mine, which will use a flotation process in the treatment of the dump ore. Later, the most improved type of furnace will be installed for extraction of the quicksilver.

COMMUNISTS ARRESTED IN LOS ANGELES

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Nine alleged members of the communist party were arrested here today by department of justice agents in connection with the nationwide roundup.

Perfect Case Against Many Parlor Bolsheviki

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—In a sweeping drive against radicalism agents of the department of justice were completing today's nation-wide raids against communist organizations in which upwards of 4,000 radicals were taken in custody with a view to deportation. Raids were ordered in thirty-three cities today and the number of arrests had reached the highest figure of any similar raid in the history of the country. The government hopes to fill another "soviet ark" and send it floating across the Atlantic to soviet Russia. The department of justice had estimated that 3,000 "undesirables" will be caught in this drive, and with their deportation it was believed the backbone of radicalism in America will have been broken.

PERMISSION TO REMOVE BODIES

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 2.—The French government has granted permission for the removal of the bodies of 20,000 American soldiers buried in France to the United States. The bodies to be removed are those buried in cemeteries outside the zone of the armistice and do not include those gathered into the big American cemeteries in the army zones.

BILL WILL PUT LID ON TIGHT

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—William Kelly, supervising federal prohibition officer for California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Arizona, today began organizing his forces preparatory to screwing down the bone dry lid in these states after January 15, when the national constitutional prohibition amendment becomes effective. He was sworn in yesterday and the official took over prohibition enforcement but he stated it would take him about two weeks to prepare for active handling of the situation.

FRANKLIN WILL GO TO TRIAL TUESDAY

E. J. Franklin, alias D. M. Fuler, alias E. J. Henderson and also James and Howard, appeared in the court of Justice Grier this afternoon to plead to the charges of forgery and embezzlement. The court ordered the case docketed for Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., when the hearing will take place without any more postponements. It appeared that Fuler, who has wealthy relatives in Sacramento and Philadelphia, had hoped to secure assistance with which he could settle all demands. His kinsmen failed to come through as their inquiries were not satisfactory.

BUY OUT THE CURRAN TRANSFER BUSINESS

Albert and Eugene O'Connell have closed a deal for the purchase of the Curran Transfer company with its warehouse interests, and will begin business next Monday. The O'Connells are favorably known in Tonopah as a couple of live wires who are deserving of patronage. Mr. Curran will remain in Reno, where he has invested in income property.

NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT

At a meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft last night, it was resolved to hold a card party with a dance and refreshments on the evening of January 14, at Oddfellows hall. Adv. 25-13.

was the drive on sources of propaganda. The communist party alone had twenty-five newspapers printed in several languages supporting its cause. The communists labor group and second radical contingent against which the raid was directed, was said not to have gained strength through its newspapers so much as through literature, tons of which were taken in the raids. Scores of communists and party agitators were arrested and Garvan said, although his information was incomplete it was reasonably certain that whole editorial staffs of most of the communist newspapers had been taken by federal agents.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL CLOSED

Joseph M. Gilfoyle, manager of the Lathrop Davis company, this afternoon took title to the block owned by the Richards Mercantile company at the corner of Main and Bryan avenue. The block extends from the corner to the Elks building and is considered one of the best locations in town. Mr. Gilfoyle will remove the hardware stock of the Lathrop Davis company to the new location.

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 3.—Families of ten and twelve children are being urged by Premier Clemenceau, who is touring the department of war, his constituency in the chamber of deputies. Clemenceau points out to his audiences the need for repopulating France.

OLD LANDMARK CHANGES OWNERS

Next week will witness the passing of the Colweb, one of the show places of the camp and one which marks, probably, as the most expensive and artistically appointed saloon between Denver and San Francisco. Today workmen are removing the elegant fixtures to make room for the office equipment of a new mining firm of which Charles Taylor is one of the principals. The offices will be headquarters for the Nevada Silver Shield Mines company. The Colweb has had a remarkable history and the former owner, John Manion, has reluctantly disposed of his lease on the premises.

FEE OF ATTORNEYS IN STATE BANK CASE $28,500

In a decision filed in the Carson City district court by District Judge McFadden the attorneys for Frank M. Wildes as receiver of the State Bank and Trust company are allowed a fee of $28,500 for their services in connection with the affairs of the defunct institution. The attorneys for the receiver are Mack and Green and A. A. Heer.

HOW REDS KEPT IN TOUCH WITH SOVIET RUSSIA

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—It would appear from some evidence seized at the office of the newspaper El Nov Soya that sailors plying between this country and Europe had been and as secret messengers to convey correspondence between the "reds" in America and their brethren in soviet Russia. It was announced that four "husky reliable men" had been engaged to stand guard over the radicals who will be concentrated at Ellis Island.

JOY RIDERS IN COUNTY JUG

Warrants were issued this afternoon for the arrest of Lloyd Qualters, J. D. Alling and Howard Clark charging them with the theft of two cars, the property of Miss Hazel Perry and Bob Wilson, superintendent of the Victory division. The cars were taken on the streets and run as long as the supply of gasoline held out. When the cars were abandoned, in handling this case Chief of Police Jack Grant did some fine sleuthing as his first clue to the thieves was the discovery that a young woman was seen at a movie show with a skirt splattered with oil. This was a clear clue and the chase at once jumped to the conclusion that she was one of those implicated in removing the motor cars from where they were parked downtown.

HARRY NEW WAS NOT COMPETENT

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Harry New is a "constitutional inferior" and when he killed his sweetheart, Freda Lesser, he was insane, according to the testimony of Dr. E. B. Hoar, an alienist, before a jury here today.
